The Allan R. Millett Study Abroad Scholarship

The Department of History
The Ohio State University

Allan R. Millett

Allan Millett is a giant in the field of Military History. At Ohio State, Allan helped build the premier Military History program in the country, advising sixty-five students to completion of Ph.D. degrees. Allan was honored with an OSU Distinguished Teaching Award in 1983 and an OSU Distinguished Scholar Award in 1994. In 2008, he won the Pritzker Military Library Literature Award for Lifetime Achievement in Military Writing. To honor his exceptional legacy of service and scholarship, The Ohio State University's Department of History is delighted to announce the creation of The Allan R. Millett Study Abroad Scholarship for Undergraduate Students.

The Allan R. Millett Study Abroad Scholarship Fund

Foreign travel was always an important facet of Allan's research and studies. During his time at Ohio State, Allan and his family traveled to dozens of countries to conduct research and to connect with the broader community of international military historians. This initiative memorializes Allan's legacy by funding semester-abroad and travel-abroad opportunities for our undergraduate students. These scholarships will provide enriched educational opportunities for history majors and will honor the accomplishments of a great historian, mentor, and teacher. We hope you will consider making a gift to this new scholarship fund in Allan's honor. Your investment and partnership will make a difference in the lives of our students by providing them an opportunity to achieve a global education.
