

THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2008 STUDENT AWARD WINNERS

ROBERT BREMINER AWARD: For a graduate student working in U.S. history.

Christianna Thomas, "In his Arm the Scar": Medicine, Disease, and the Social Implications of the 1721 Inoculation Controversy on Boston."

ANDREAS DORPALEN AWARD: For a graduate student working on a dissertation in the area of nineteenth or twentieth century German history.

Mark Rice, "The Alliance City: NATO and Berlin, 1958-1963."

FOSTER RHEA DULLES AWARD: for a graduate student working on a dissertation or a thesis in U.S. history, particularly the twentieth century.

Brian Kennedy, "A Divisive Decade: How Foreign Events and Cultural Conflicts Divided Americans During the 1930s."

GENEVIEVE BROWN GIST DISSERTATION RESEARCH AWARD IN WOMEN'S HISTORY: Supports graduate student in women's history.

Meredith Clark-Wiltz, "Revising Constitutions and Redressing Citizenship: Debates over Race and Sex Discrimination in Jury Selection, 1920-1979."

RUTH HIGGINS SUMMER AWARD: Summer stipends for graduate students working in any field.

Ursula Gurney, "The United States and European Détante: Nixon, Ford and the Helsinki Accords, 1969-1975."

HELEN AND HAROLD KAPILOFF RESEARCH AWARD: for graduate student in diplomatic/international history, with preference for those working in libraries and archives outside the U.S.

Robert Clemm, "An Ordered 'Scramble': The Use of Cartography in the European Colonization of Eastern Africa."

BRADLEY it KASTAN AWARD: To support graduate students working in the field of business history

Michael J. Alarid, "Rising from the West: Intercultural Conflict and Social Change in Early Santa Fe, 1847-1863."

KAUFFMAN FAMILY SUMMER RESEARCH AWARD: for graduate students in American History

Robert Denning, "The California Air Resources Board under Governor Ronald Reagan"

TIEN-YI LI PRIZE: For an outstanding graduate student in the field of Chinese History and culture.

Yan Xu, "Saving Self and Nation: Womanhood and Family Reform in Republican China, 1911-1945."

PHILIP POIRIER AWARD: Graduate student research in British history.

Mark Rice, "The Alliance City: NATO and Berlin, 1958-1963."

ELAINE S. ANJ) JOHN C. RULE AWARD: To support travel and study abroad in West Europe.

Denice Fett, "Information, Intelligence and Negotiation: The Atlantic European Diplomatic World, 1558-1585."

HENRY H. SIMMS AWARD: Support for dissertation research in southern history from the Colonial to the Reconstruction Periods.

Michael Alarid, "Rising from the West: Intercultural Conflict and Social Change in Early Santa Fe, 1847-1863."

ALLAN AND HELGA WILDMAN MEMORIAL AWARD: to support graduate students in Russian/East European Studies.

Peter T. De Simone, "Faith and Prosperity: Religion and Economic Development of Russian Orthodox Old Believer Communities, 1700-1855."

HISTORY FACULTY SUMMER RESEARCH AWARD: Summer award for graduate students in any field of history to support dissertation research.

Stephen Shapiro, "Political Rhetoric, National Identity, and British Defense Policy, 1842-1871."

HIJMANITIES SUMMER RESEARCH AWARDS: Summer awards for graduate students in any field of history to support dissertation research.

Andrew de Ia Garza, "Great Armies and Perfect Dominion": Babur, Akbar and the Mughal Military Revolution, 1526-1605."

Lawrence Bowdish, "Invidious Distinctions: Credit Discrimination Against Women, 1963-Present."

Gregory Kupsky, "German-Americans and National Socialism, 1933-1945."

George Lywood, "Imagining, Building, and Consuming Russia's Riviera: Tourism and the Black Sea Coast before 1917."

Kathryn Magee, "'Faire la Chaudiere': The Huron Feast of Souls, 1600-1650."

Joseph A. Orser, "American Family, Oriental Curiosity: The Siamese Twins, The Bunker Clan, and the Nineteenth-Century United States."

Jessica R. Pliley, "Wandering Wives, Deviant Daughters, and Pesky Prostitutes: Policing Moral Boundaries under the Mann Act, 1900-1945."

Chapin Li Rydingsward, "Civilization and Modernization: The U.S. Struggle over Palestine, 1917-1948."

RETRIEVING THE AMERICAN PAST SUMMER AWARDS: Summer awards to support dissertation research in any field of history.

Edward Gutiérrez, "Sherman was Right: The Experience of AEF Soldiers in the First World War."

Alexander Poster, "A Hierarchy of Survival: The United States and the Negotiation of International Disaster Relief."

Angela Ryan, "What Happened to the 1960s? Multi-racial Student Coalitions and the Enduring Legacy of Ethnic Studies."

GRADUATE SCHOOL SUMMER RESEARCH AWARDS: Summer awards to support dissertation research in any field of history.

Rachael Ball, "Treating the Public: Public Health, Public Entertainment, and Public Opinion in the Seventeenth Century."

Vefa Erginbas, "The Appropriation of Early Islamic History in Ottoman Historical Writing, 16th – 19th Centuries: The Case of Caliph All and the Problem of Succession."