OVERTURNING ROE: THE PAST AND FUTURE OF ABORTION IN THE UNITED STATES

Hosted by The Department of History Clio Society

On Friday, June 24, 2022, the U.S. Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade, the landmark 1973 decision that made access to an abortion a federal right in the United States.

- What will a post-Roe America mean for gender equality and reproductive rights? For U.S. politics?
- What was life like in America before Roe?
- What were the origins and legal precedents of the Roe decision?
- What were the social roots of the efforts to repeal Roe and why have they been so successful?
- What is the impact of the U.S. Dobbs decision on reproductive health and rights globally?
- How can we understand the current situation in the US in relation to a wider transnational context?
- What is the social history of reproductive (in)justice in the U.S.?

Join our panel of experts as they explore the answers to these and other questions.

Monday November 7, 12pm-1pm
Live Streamed

Panelists:

SUSAN HARTMANN
Emeritus Professor of History

ALISON NORRIS
Associate Professor and Interim Chair, Dept. of Epidemiology, College of Public Health

MYTHELI SREENIVAS
Professor of History and Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

NICHOLAS BREYFOGLE (MODERATOR)
Associate Professor of History and Director, Goldberg Center for Excellence in Teaching

Register at: https://go.osu.edu/overturningroe