The American “Postwar” Relief Mission in Wartime Poland, 1919-1923

Please join us for a seminar by Paul Niebrzydowski*
March 24, 2016, 12:15-1:45 pm
168 Dulles Hall

Papers are distributed and read in advance so that the seminar can be given over to discussion. The Paper can be found at http://history.osu.edu/events/seminars-workshops/russian-east-europe-eurasian/papers

Pizza and refreshments will be served

Sponsored by the Department of History; the Russian, East European, and Eurasian History Seminar; and the Center for Slavic and East European Studies

*Paul Niebrzydowski is a PhD candidate in History at the Ohio State University, completing the dissertation “Reining in the Four Horsemen: Starvation, Disease, and American Relief in Central and Eastern Europe, 1915-1923.”