HISTORY AT THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

If you think history is simply a lot of names, dates, and battles, you are in for a surprise. At The Ohio State University history is alive, and it's probably not what you would expect. In today's world, where war, recession, revolution, famine, and social upheaval occur with frightening regularity, history is the key to understanding these crises. History is not a recitation of facts and names, but involves analysis and understanding. History is the sum total of the human experience, and that experience serves as a mirror reflecting today's events.

For students interested in studying history at Ohio State, an academic adviser is available Monday through Friday for more information: Maria Mazon can be reached at mazon.1@osu.edu (292-6793) she is located in Room 144 Dulles Hall.

This brochure includes information about the Department of History at The Ohio State University. It describes the major, the minor, the honors program, course offerings, faculty, and opportunities for post-graduate programs and employment.

This handbook is also listed in the World Wide Web at

THE UNDERGRADUATE HISTORY MAJOR

The History Major consists of a minimum of 33 credit hours at the 2000-level and above. Three courses, History 2800, one 4000-level Readings Seminar and one 4000-level Research Seminar, are required, and at least 24 more hours must be chosen within the categories outlined below.

The student should design his or her History Major in consultation with their Academic Advisor, who must sign the Major Program form. The student should select History courses to complement those courses of the General Education (GE).

OVERVIEW:
The 33 credit hours must fulfill the following four required areas (see below for details):

A) Skills Acquisition (9 credit hours)
B) Breadth (12 credit hours)
C) Concentration (12 credit hours)
D) Progression (included in above credit hours)

- If students double count courses and fulfill all of the requirements in Categories A-C before reaching the required 33 credit hours (described in the Overview, above), they must still satisfy the 33-credit-hour requirement of the Major. They will fill in the remaining credit hours with History courses of their choosing.
- A student is never required to exceed 33 credit hours in order to fulfill the requirements in Categories A-C.
- No more than 3 credit hours of History 3193 or 4193 (“Individual Studies”) may be counted towards the Major Program.
- No more than 6 credit hours of History 2798, 3798, or 4798 (“Study Tour”) may be counted towards the Major Program.
- No more than 9 credit hours of 4998, 4998H, 4999, and 4999H may be counted towards the Major Program.
- With the Academic Advisor's approval, up to 6 credit hours of courses from other Departments may be designated as part of Category B (Breadth) requirements for the Major Program in History.

Category A: Skills Acquisition (9 credit hours)
The following three seminars (9 credit hours) are required of all History majors.

A (1) History 2800: Introduction to the Discipline of History (3 credit hours)
The “gateway” course for History majors, which emphasizes critical reading and writing, and introduces students to the methodologies, approaches, and historiographies of historical study. A student must pass History 2800 with at least a “C.”

A (2) One 4000-level Reading Seminar in History (3 credit hours)
One of the following reading seminars—normally taken in the junior year, and with a focus on historiography, analysis, methodology, and interpretation—is required. Note: History 4193, 4194, 4585 and 4797-4999 do not fulfill this requirement.

4000 Readings in Early American History
4010 Readings in Modern U.S. History
4080 Readings in African American History
4090 Readings in Atlantic World History
A (3) One 4000-level Research Seminar in History (3 credit hours)
One of the following research seminars, emphasizing research and writing skills, is required and is usually taken during the senior year. Note: History 4193, 4194, 4585 and 4797-4998 do not fulfill this requirement.

Category B: Breadth (12 credit hours)
Overview: Students are required to develop a program that includes chronological and geographic breadth.

This includes:
1. 2 courses (6 credit hours) focusing chronologically on the period before 1750
2. 2 courses (6 credit hours) focusing chronologically on the period after 1750
3. 2 courses (6 credit hours) focusing primarily on East Asia, Africa, Latin America, the Middle East, Central Asia, and South Asia
4. 2 courses (6 credit hours) focusing primarily on North America and/or Europe
5. 1 course (3 credit hours) focusing on comparative, transnational, transregional, or global history

(Note: lists of courses that fulfill each of these requirements are below)

 Please note:
- Students are permitted to use one course to satisfy more than one of these five areas of breadth simultaneously. For example, a course on Ancient Rome would satisfy the pre-1750 requirement and a “Europe” requirement simultaneously. That is, geographical and chronological requirements can be fulfilled by the same course.
- In addition, the two 4000-level seminars can also fulfill any of these chronological and geographic requirements. That is, A. (2) or (3) can simultaneously satisfy any of the requirements in Category B. For Example, History 4211 (Readings in Roman History) would not only satisfy the A (2) requirement of a Reading Seminar but would also satisfy one pre-1750 requirement and one “Europe” requirement.
- Courses used to satisfy Category C (Concentration) can simultaneously count towards Category B (see below under Category C for further discussion), and vice versa.
- As a result, the total of the credit hours required for each of the 5 different sub-categories of Category B “Breadth” do not add up to the 12 credit hours required in this Category. However, as a result of double counting, both within the requirements of Category B and among Categories A-C, no student will be required to take more than 12 distinct credit hours in Category B.

B (1) 2 courses (6 credit hours) focusing on the period before 1750 (courses in this category need not focus on a single region.) The following courses fulfill the pre-1750 requirement.

Category C: Concentration (Geographic or Thematic): (12 credit hours)

Students must take 12 credit hours in either a Geographical or a thematic concentration.

- Students are permitted to count relevant courses from A. (2) or (3) simultaneously toward this total.
- Students are permitted to count up to 12 credit hours from category B (1-5) simultaneously toward this total, but courses in other departments may not count toward the Concentration requirement.

C (1) Geographical concentrations: Possible areas of geographic concentration include:

- North America,
- Latin America,
- Europe (including Russia),
- Near East, Middle East, Central Asia, and/or South Asia
- East Asia, and
- Africa

See full list of courses fulfilling these geographical concentrations on pages 26-33.

C (2) Thematic concentrations:

- history of environment, science and technology;
- history of race, ethnicity, and nation;
- religious history;
- history of colonialism and comparative empires;
- human conflict, peace and diplomacy;
- history of the state (power, culture, society)
- global, early modern
- women’s history.

Students may also arrange their own thematic concentrations with permission of Advisor.

See full list of courses fulfilling these thematic concentrations on pages 33-41.

Category D: Progression (credit hours included in categories A-C)

Of the 33 credit hours required for the Major, at least 21 credit hours must be at the 3000-level or above. This includes the two required 4000-level seminars (6 cr. hrs.) plus at least 15 credit hours at the 3000-level & above.

One 2000-level History course must be taken prior to enrolling in a 3000-level History course (or instructor permission). One 3000-level History course must be taken prior to enrolling in a 4000- or a 5000-level History course.

Ideally, the 4000-level Reading Seminar will be taken prior to the 4000-level Research Seminar.
THE UNDERGRADUATE MINOR IN HISTORY

The minor in history is designed to provide students with substantial understanding of the human past. All proposals for minor programs must be submitted in writing to one of the History advisors and approved by them. After your Minor Program Form has been approved, you must file the form with your advisor.

The minor consists of 12 credit hours of history course work at the 2000 level and above. Of these, at least 6 credit hours must be at the 3000 level or above. Courses at the 1000 level cannot be used on the minor.

- Students are free to choose any History courses they wish to fulfill the 12 credit hours, but they are encouraged to take courses that focus on a particular theme, time period, or geographic region.
- Students are also encouraged to consult with an advisor when preparing their minor.

General Information on Minors in the Arts & Sciences

The following guidelines govern this minor.

Required for graduation: No
Credit hours required: A minimum of 12
Transfer credit hours allowed: A maximum of 6

- No more than 3 credit hours of History 3193 or 4193 (“Individual Studies”) may be counted towards the Minor Program.
- No more than 3 credit hours of History 2797, 2798, 3797, 3798, 4797, or 4798 (“Study at a Foreign Institution” and “Study Tour”) may be counted towards the Minor Program.

Overlap with the GE: Up to 6 credit hours are permitted. History courses used to fulfill the following GE requirements—Historical Study, Historical Study or Culture & Ideas, Data Analysis, Literature, Social Science and the 2 Open options (as well as Global Studies and Social Diversity in the United States)—may also satisfy the History Minor. Please Note: While we encourage students to take 4000-level readings and research seminars for the minor, such 4000-level courses do not offer GE credit. History courses at the 2000 and 3000 level offer GE credit.

Overlap with the major: Not allowed and
- The minor must be in a different subject than the major.

Overlap between minors: Each minor completed must contain 12 unique hours.

Grades required
- Minimum C- for a course to be listed on the minor.
- Minimum 2.00 cumulative point-hour ratio required for the minor.
- Course work graded Pass/Non-pass cannot count on the minor.

Approval required: All proposals for an Undergraduate Minor Program in History must be submitted in writing to one of the History advisors and approved by them.

Filing the Minor Program Form: The minor program form must be filed at least by the time the graduation application is submitted.

Changing the minor: Once the minor program is filed in the college office, any changes must be approved by:
- The academic unit offering the minor.
THE HONORS PROGRAM IN HISTORY

FOR HONORS HISTORY MAJORS:

In addition to the basic requirements for the history major, Honors students are obliged to complete the following additional requirements.

1. Honors History majors are encouraged to take Honors versions of History 2800 and the two 4000-level seminars described above in Category A: Skills acquisition (9 credit hours). If insufficient honors seminars are offered in a given semester, an honors History major must either (1) take a non-honors seminar as an honors embedded course, or (2) request permission from the department Honors coordinator to substitute a non-honors seminar for an honors seminar. The honors embedded option is offered solely at the instructor’s discretion.

2. Honors students are encouraged to take Honors versions of the other 24 credit hours of other courses (discussed above), whenever possible.

3. Honors students are encouraged to take more of the 4000-level Readings and Research Seminars than the two required for the Major (one Readings 4000-level seminar and one Research 4000-level seminar).

4. Advanced training in foreign languages is important for all Honors students choosing the History Major. Every Honors student choosing the History Major should develop proficiency (meaning the ability to read newspapers, magazines, scholarly journals, and novels) in at least one foreign language.

5. Senior honors thesis: Honors students wishing to graduate “With Honors Research Distinction” are required to write a senior honors thesis. In preparation, they are encouraged to use the coursework from their 4000-level readings seminar as the foundation for the thesis.

6. All history honors majors complete a major of at least 39 credit hours. Students completing a thesis and earning a degree “With Honors Research Distinction” may use the 6-9 credit hours earned in History 4999H toward the 39 credit hour minimum.
THE HONORS PROGRAM IN HISTORY

PURPOSE
Honors students majoring in history complete both the Major and the requirements for "Honors in the Arts and Sciences" or "With Honors Research Distinction" or both. In order for a history major pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree in the College of Arts and Sciences to maintain status as an Honors student, he or she must prepare and follow a program of study approved by the Arts and Sciences Honors Committee. Students earning a degree with "Honors in the Arts and Sciences" complete an "honors contract" approved by the ASC Honors Committee; these contracts provide for a rigorous program of study. Students earning a degree with "Honors Research Distinction" complete a Honors Thesis under the supervision of a thesis advisor in the Department of History. Some history majors satisfy the requirement for both designations and receive both designations on their degree.

Honors students choosing the history major will engage in a course of study designed to sharpen writing, research, and analytical skills, to develop insights into how historians do their work, and to gain substantial historical knowledge. The History Major furnishes excellent preparation for graduate-level work, for professional schools including law school, and for careers in business, education, the arts, and public service.

Honors students seeking help with their History Major should first see Dr. Ray Irwin, 110 Dulles Hall, 292-2674. He is available to discuss the honors requirements and to help with scheduling classes. Dr. Irwin also helps plan the section on the major in the honors contract required for receiving a degree with "Honors in the Arts and Sciences" and recommends faculty advisors to the individual student. Students who undertake an Honors Thesis also will have a faculty advisor for that project and will enroll in History 4999H, "Honors Undergraduate Research Thesis."

EXPECTATIONS
Honors students enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences work closely with advisors and members of the faculty to develop a rigorous program of study. With the approval of the Arts and Sciences Honors committee, the program of study may approach requirements flexibly so long as the program includes special rigor and intellectual challenges. Honors students majoring in history thus must work closely with the Arts and Sciences Honors Program staff to ensure completion of the requirements of the Arts and Sciences Honors Program.

The faculty of the history department encourages the honors student to complete the degree "With Honors Research Distinction" through the writing of an honors thesis. Completion of a thesis is important preparation for successful performance in a professional or graduate program. Thesis completion occurs through enrollment in History 4999H, "Honors Undergraduate Research Thesis." Three credits of History 4999H may replace the Honors 4000-level Research course in the History Major. Students completing a thesis and earning a degree "With Honors Research Distinction" must complete a major program totaling at least 39 credits (6-9 of which may be credit for History 4999H). Students planning to write a thesis should, in consultation with their thesis advisor, define a topic and devise a plan of work at least two semesters prior to their anticipated graduation. They may also apply for the Arts and Sciences Undergraduate Research Scholarship competition.

REQUIREMENTS: ASC Honors Tracks
There are two components to the History Honors Program. The first is the Major Program in History; the second is the ASC Honors Program. The requirements for the Major Program in History for Honors Students have been described above. This section describes the various tracks the ASC Honors Program offers, along with Department of History requirements.

In addition to the above requirements, and as established by the ASC Honors Program and the Department of History, History Honors students must choose one of the following three tracks.

A. With Honors Research Distinction
The History Department Faculty recommends that History Honors students write an honors thesis, because completion of a thesis prepares students for graduate or professional school or professional employment.
A History Honors student planning to graduate with Honors Research Distinction will:

- Devise with the History Advisor at least two semesters before graduation a prospectus for the Honors Thesis. The ASC Honors Committee must approve the prospectus. While working on the Thesis, the student will enroll in History 4999H for up to 3 credit hours per semester for a total of at least 6 credit hours and a maximum of 9 credit hours.

- Graduate with a GPA of no less than 3.40.

- Meet the prerequisites for History 4999H: the completion of at least 18 credit hours in history, with a grade point average in the history courses of at least 3.50.

- Enroll in a History 4999H, “Honors Undergraduate Research Thesis.”

Note: Honors students who earn credit for 4999H are encouraged to take the 4000-level Research Seminar but are not required to do so. Students are required to take the 4000-level Readings Seminar.

B. With Honors in the Arts and Sciences

History Honors students planning to graduate with Honors in the Arts and Sciences will:

- Fulfill an Honors Contract.
  - The Honors contract is devised by the student in consultation with the History and ASC Honors Advisors. It should be submitted as soon as possible and no later than early in the junior year, and it must be approved by the ASC Honors Committee

- Complete the 4000-level Research and Readings Seminar, taking honors sections when possible. (Not required for students earning credit for History 4999H.) Honors students are encouraged to take more of the 4000-level seminars than the two required for the Major (one Readings 4000-level seminar and one Research 4000-level seminar).

- Graduate with a GPA of no less than 3.40.

C. Honors in the Arts and Sciences with Honors Research Distinction

History Honors students planning to graduate with Honors in the Arts and Sciences and with Honors Research Distinction will fulfill all of the requirements listed in A. and B. above.

Note: Under exceptional circumstances the Department of History is willing to modify the requirements of the Honors Program in History to fit the specific needs of individual students. Such modifications must conform to the policies of the Arts and Sciences Honors Committee.

As part of an international honor society, the Ohio State chapter strives to promote the study of history and encourages research and advanced scholarship in the field. Phi Alpha Theta at Ohio State provides opportunities for the informal exchange of ideas among historians and students of history outside the classroom, and organizes various social activities. Initiation into membership occurs once per year, in spring semester. The advisor for Phi Alpha Theta is Dr. Ray Irwin, (irwin.8@osu.edu).
AFTER GRADUATION

History prepares the student for a wide variety of careers. Reports from the Arts & Sciences Office of Career Services at Ohio State indicate that former history majors are working in business, banking, teaching, government service, social work, library and archival work, publishing, and law. History has always been recognized as one of the best undergraduate programs for those planning to go into law, but professional and business schools also value a well-rounded liberal education as a basis upon which to build their programs. Of course, some students go into graduate work in history, and the Undergraduate history advisors maintain information on graduate programs at other universities.

To assist students with career planning, the Undergraduate History Office offers an annual "Career Night" held during spring semester, for all History majors. This event features a panel of history faculty and successful alumni who speak on various topics such as "Graduate Studies in History" and "History and Careers in Law." Students who have attended this Career Night in the past have found it very informative and helpful. We encourage you to come and participate. The Arts and Sciences Office of Career Services in Denney Hall will also help assist students in finding employment after graduation.

THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY WITHIN THE UNIVERSITY

In addition to undergraduate major and minor degree programs, and graduate programs leading to the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees, the Department of History provides other services for the OSU student.

REQUIRED COURSES IN HISTORY

The study of history is an essential part of a liberal education. For this reason, the Arts and Sciences curricula have a special history requirement. Introductory history courses (those numbered 1000 & 2000) are usually taken by students to satisfy this requirement. These introductory offerings assume no previous knowledge of history, so students should not hesitate to register for a course at this level. Because each of the University's undergraduate colleges has slightly different rules about the use of history courses to fulfill general requirements, students should consult the appropriate college catalog for details.

UPPER-LEVEL COURSES IN HISTORY

The full strength of the History Department can be appreciated by looking at the wide variety of upper-level courses offered by the department. In general, these courses are open only to students who have taken one lower-level course in history. Although some of these courses have prerequisites, history courses are not sequential, and so a student can usually register for any course. Students should talk with the instructor if there is any doubt about taking a particular course. The instructor can tell whether a student is likely to benefit from the course and may be willing to waive any prerequisites.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Prior to scheduling, the Undergraduate History Office prepares a booklet that lists all courses to be offered during the next semester. This booklet provides detailed information about course offerings, class meeting times, instructors, reading lists, and assignments. This booklet is available to all students at no cost and can be picked up from the History Office, 106 Dulles Hall; or on the Web at http://history.osu.edu/courses/info.
PREPARING FOR EM EXAMINATION IN HISTORY

In response to inquiries from students on how to prepare for EM examinations (credit by examination) in history, the following list of suggestions has been compiled.

1. First, read the designated material carefully and thoroughly. For History 1211 and 1212 the commonly used text is McKay, Hill, and Buckler, History of Western Society, Vol. 1 for History 1211 and Vol. 2 for History 1212. The cut-off date for History 1211 is the year 1600. For History 1151 and 1152 the History Department recommends Nash and Jeffrey, The American People, 3rd ed., Vol. 1 for History 1151 and Vol. 2 for History 1152. The year 1877 is the cut-off date for History 1151. For History 1681 and 1682 the recommended text is Richard Buillet, et al., The Earth and Its Peoples, Vol. 1 for History 1681 and Vol. 2 for History 1682. The cut-off date for History 1681 is 1500. The texts are available at all campus bookstores.

2. As you read through the material, concentrate on major themes such as economic, political, military, social, and intellectual development. Do not get bogged down in details. You will simply get confused if you try to memorize every date and event. Do not go to the opposite extreme, however, and emerge from your readings with a few hazy generalizations in mind. Like any other analytical discipline, history requires facts to bolster its findings and conclusions.

3. In addition, you should consider obtaining syllabi for the courses for which you desire to obtain EM credit. These are available in the Undergraduate History Office, 110 Dulles Hall. These syllabi highlight themes and topics that appear on the exam, and students find them helpful in determining the material to cover and the areas on which to concentrate. Also, you could borrow class notes from someone who has taken or is currently taking the course for which you will be taking the EM examination. This should give you further aid in focusing your study.

4. When taking the exam, first be sure that you understand the instructions. When writing an essay on a particular topic, be sure to focus on that topic throughout the answer. Often students answer a question by citing a mass of historical data that is unrelated to the question asked. This often leaves the faculty member grading the examination no other choice than to recommend no credit for the exam. Be as analytical as possible in your response. The reiteration of a mass of historical data will get you only a 'C' grade and you need at least a 'B-' in order to receive EM credit in history.

5. Finally, your answers should demonstrate competence in English composition. Good history is good writing. If you feel that your command of written English leaves something to be desired, consult Strunk and White's Elements of Style, a concise resource that contains invaluable information on English composition. The book is readily available at the OSU libraries and at all campus bookstores.

This list of suggestions by no means exhausts the possible strategies to prepare for the examination. No doubt, you will have other ideas on what to do to prepare yourself. Once you are prepared, contact the Office of Testing and schedule an examination date. The telephone number is 292-2241 and the address is 281 W. Lane Avenue in the Student Services Building, Room 585. The Office of Testing will inform you of the examination results. Please Note: Examinations for credit may be taken only one time per course.
HISTORY COURSE OFFERINGS

1000-level History courses cover broad areas of historical investigation (Western, East Asian, American, Latin American and World Civilizations). These courses fulfill GE requirements but do not count toward the history major or minor and will be taught infrequently.

2000-level History courses are intermediate-level courses that serve as GE courses and also count toward the History major and minor. A 2000-level course offers an introduction to a certain geographical or thematic field (constellations), such as early modern European history, women’s history, or environmental history. It may also provide an introduction to a more focused subject or theme, such as migration in modern Europe, childhood in the western world, or the history of anti-Semitism. Please note: 2000-level courses do not fulfill an upper-level course requirement for the College of Arts & Sciences.

A 3000-level History course offers upper-intermediate, and often more specialized, training in the geographical and thematic fields introduced at the 2000 level, as well as in-depth training in more focused subjects, such as American presidential elections, magic & witchcraft in early modern Europe, or Jewish communities under Muslim rule. They carry GE credit and are open to non-History majors, as well.

The 4000-level Reading and Research History seminars are open only to History majors and minors. They stress critical reading and writing centered on a well-defined topic in a geographical or thematic field. Students are strongly encouraged to take the reading seminar first; followed by the writing seminar (usually in the senior year).

5000-level courses are designed for both Undergraduate and Graduate Students. The History Department generally offers very few of these combined courses. As per University definitions, these are advanced level courses providing undergraduate credit that may be counted toward a major or field of specialization.
