What's Happening This Month - March

March 8: History Career Night! 7-9pm, Dulles 168

TONIGHT!

March 23 - "The Once and Future Revolution: Social Upheaval and the Challenge of Rule during Mexico's Long Twentieth Century," Gil Joseph, 3-4:30pm, Dulles 168

This lecture is part of the 2017-2019 Center for Historical Research Program. For more information on the CHR, go to http://chr.osu.edu
March 23 - "The Great Departure: Mass Migration from Eastern Europe and the Making of the Free World," Tara Zahra, 5pm, Mendenhall Lab, Room TBA

Sponsored by the Slavic Center and co-sponsored by History and the Global Mobility Project. For more information on the Global Mobility Project, go to: https://u.osu.edu/globalmobility/

The Ohio State Undergraduate Research Conference Saturday, March 24th from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in Dulles 168.

Details Below

Important Dates - March

Thursday, March 8th - Career Night! 7-9pm, Dulles 168

Friday, March 9th - Deadline to Submit Materials to Run for History Club Office (see details below)

Monday, March 12th through Friday, March 16th - Spring Break! (But you knew that already, didn't you?)

Friday, March 23 - last day to drop and still receive a “W”

Saturday, March 24th - The Ohio State Undergraduate Research Conference
Conference, 10-5pm, Dulles 168 (see details below)

Friday, March 30 - last day to apply for Spring 2018 graduation

---

It’s Career Night Time!

Someday, before you know it, that joyous day of graduation will arrive. Are you ready for what comes next? Come to the History Department’s annual Career Night and let us help as you think about it. It’s never too soon to start planning a long-term strategy.

This year’s career evening includes, in addition to some general advice on career planning for majors, speakers on careers in business, public history, technology, and historic preservation, as well as advice about preparing for graduate study in History. (You’ll find delicious snacks as well.) Hope to see you there!

Photos from last year’s career night

---

What’s Up for You This Summer?

Did you know that summer enrollment windows open soon? And that summer tuition is discounted for all sessions?

- How about an internship?

- Or maybe study abroad?

  https://history.osu.edu/study-abroad
• Or a course in History? (Many of them are offered online.)

https://history.osu.edu/courses/info/sum-2018-undergrad

---

Kudos!
History Student Achievements

- Sam Huryn (Spring 2018), was awarded a full-tuition scholarship to OSU Moritz College of Law (renewable for three years)!

- Tyler Webb’s paper “The Battling Buckeyes of the 37th Infantry Division” was accepted to the 2018 Annual Meeting of the Society for Military History. Tyler presented at the Undergraduate Research Day at the Ohio Statehouse on Wednesday, February 28th and will present his research at the Denman Undergraduate Research Forum on April 3rd!

---

History Club Elections! Are you interested in running?

The History Club will have its elections this spring for new officers for the 2018-2019 academic year. These positions are open to Phi Alpha Theta members (including those who will be newly initiated this semester). There are four positions: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. Officers are responsible for initiating, organizing, and leading History Club (our informal group of all those interested in history) events and activities. If you are interested in running for an office, please send to Michelle Sdao, via email (sdao.1@buckeyemail.osu.edu), at least 300 words on why you want to be an officer/why you would be a good officer. Please be somewhat specific in giving examples of what you would plan to do as an officer, past experiences that make you a good candidate, etc. The deadline for the statement is Friday, March 9th.

---

The Ohio State Undergraduate Research Conference

Saturday, March 24th from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in Dulles 168. Ten students from six institutions will present their research. Those interested in attending should RSVP to Michelle Sdao (sdao.1@buckeyemail.osu.edu) by March 15th. The event is free and open to all!
Call For Papers!

THE PREMODERNIST UNDERGRADUATE SYMPOSIUM

Wednesday April 25
(Probable time: 12-5pm)
Dulles Hall 168

Sponsors: The Premodernist Group and The Department of History

The History department's Premodernist Group is a forum where OSU faculty and students who study premodern cultures come together to discuss issues of common interest and concern. On Wednesday April 25, 2018 we propose to hold our first undergraduate symposium. Here, students will have the opportunity to present papers and exchange ideas with peers, graduate students, and faculty in a warm, supportive environment. We encourage all interested students to submit proposals for presentations or just attend the event, regardless of major.

Guidelines for submissions

- We welcome papers on premodern life in any part of the globe, north, south, east, or west.
- Our understanding of the term “premodern” is very broad. We take the boundary between “premodern” and “modern” to be roughly around 1800, but this will vary from context to context. We also welcome topics which consider forces/processes of “modernization.”
- Papers may address any dimension of premodern experience, from government, family life, and gender norms to religion, art, and literature.
- Presenters should expect to speak for 15-20 minutes.
- It is fine to submit a proposal for a paper that has already been presented elsewhere, e.g., the Denman or the English department's upcoming conference on pre-/early modern women.
- If students have a preference for a particular time in the afternoon due to some other commitment (e.g., an exam!), please let us know when you submit the proposal. We hope that presenters will be able to stay for the whole event and engage in discussions, but understand if this is not possible.
- Proposals should be just a single paragraph long, with name and paper title clearly visible.

Please send submissions to Prof. Greg Anderson of the History department (anderson.1381@osu.edu) by Monday April 9. Please feel free to email Prof. Anderson anytime if you have any questions.