DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
GRADUATE STUDENT AWARDS AND PRIZES, 2014

Department of History Graduate Students may apply for the following awards and prizes. Applications for the awards are due by Monday, January 13, 2014.

AWARDS IN ANY FIELD

Ruth Higgins Award
The award supports dissertation or thesis research in any field of history. One or two awards of $1,300.

History Department Summer Research Awards
The award provides summer support for graduate students in any field of history for work on dissertations or theses in Columbus or elsewhere. Several awards of up to $5,000.

Retrieving The American Past (RTAP) Award
The award provides summer support to a graduate student in any field of history for work on dissertations or theses in Columbus or elsewhere. Several awards of up to $5,000.

FIELD SPECIFIC AWARDS

Robert Bremner Award
The award supports graduate student education in U.S. history. One or two awards of $1,000.

Andreas Dorpalen Award
The award supports a graduate student working on a dissertation in the area of nineteenth-or-twentieth century German history. One award of $1,200.

Foster Rhea Dulles Award
The award supports a graduate student working on a dissertation or thesis in U.S. history, particularly 20th century. One award of up to $2,000.

Genevieve Brown Gist Dissertation Research Award in Women’s History
The award supports doctoral research for a student in women’s history. Awardees will be selected on the basis of scholastic ability and need. One award of up to $5,000.

Helen and Harold Kapiloff Research Award
The award supports doctoral research for student in diplomatic/international history, with preference given to those working in libraries and archives outside the U.S. One or two awards of up to $2,000.
Bradley R. Kastan Award
The award supports a graduate student in the field of business history. One award of up to $500.

Kauffman Family Summer Research Award
The award provides summer research support for graduate students in American history. One or two awards of up to $5,000.

Tien-Yi Li Prize (Faculty Nomination Required)
The award is given to an outstanding graduate student in the field of Chinese history and culture. One award of $1,000.

Joseph H. Lynch Award
The award is given to students studying medieval history or the history of Christianity. One or two awards of up to $1,500.

Philip Poirier Awards
The award supports dissertation research in England for a student in British history. One award of up to $3,000.

Elaine S. and John C. Rule Award
The award supports travel and/or study abroad in West Europe (France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Spain, and Portugal), with preference first for doctoral students in the field of early modern Europe (1450-1789) and then for doctoral students in modern Europe (1789-present). One award of up to $2,500.

Henry H. Simms Award
The award supports dissertation research and writing on some aspect of one of the following areas of study: the colonial and ante-bellum South, the slavery controversy, the Civil War, and the Reconstruction period. One award of up to $2,500.

Allan and Helga Wildman Award (Faculty Nomination Required)
The award supports training and research for graduate students in the Russian/East European history. The award may be used to fund research trips to Russia, Eastern Europe, or appropriate collections elsewhere, special language training, or conference travel. Candidates for the award must be nominated by faculty in the Russian/East European field. One award of up to $1,500.

Sydney Fisher Memorial Award (Faculty Nomination Required)
The award supports research and study of Ottoman and Turkish Studies. One award of up to $1,900.

The Lieutenant Colonel Sean M. Judge Award
Established in memory of Sean M. Judge by his friends, for those who study military history, with a preference for graduate students in the Department of History. One award of $2,000.